THE NEW MOWN HAY.

BY CHARLES MCGILL.

When swallows dash from cottage eaves,
And farmers dream of barley harvest,
And the sun is full and bright,
And the wind is soft and sweet,
And the birds are singing sweet,
And the flowers are in bloom,
And the world is all a joy,
And the heart is all a song,
And the soul is all a dream,
And the life is all a dream,<

And the heart is all a song,
And the soul is all a dream,
And the life is all a dream,<

And the heart is all a song,
And the soul is all a dream,<

And the heart is all a song,
And the soul is all a dream,

And the heart is all a song,
And the soul is all a dream,

And the heart is all a song,
And the soul is all a dream,

A detailed woodcut illustration of musical instruments. In the center is a violin, with its body, f-hole, and strings clearly visible. To the left of the violin is a trumpet, angled upwards. To the right is a drum, partially obscured by the violin. The instruments are resting on a surface, and the entire scene is rendered in a classic woodcut style with fine lines and cross-hatching for shading.

THE SUBSCRIBER
HAS on hand in the Town, in the other of Front and Bridge Streets, lately occupied by JOHN DOWDNEY ESQ, a large Stock of School Books,
Blank Books,
Stationery,
FANCY GOODS,

ROOM PAPER, which will be sold considerably CHEAPER than such Goods were ever sold in Belleville before.

It is unnecessary to state here why these Goods will be sold cheap, but a call will convince any one of the fact.
